Overview of the Leadership Coach Training Program

Spot the best talent in your industry.

Creating leaders and transforming your organization's leadership is necessary.

Make a difference in your team - groom the best talent as a professional leadership coach. Hone that ability to develop potential leaders. Build the team of the future that creates outstanding performance in an uncertain market. Make this possible. Take the Leadership Coach Training Program (LCTP).

The LCTP program is designed to enable you to coach with clarity and develop people effectively within their different roles. LCTP also improves the ability for an organization's top performing leaders to cope with the leadership challenges they face in their work. This program imparts the core principles of being a leader and gives you tools to facilitate the development of new leaders. LCTP marks the beginning of a powerful development for you as a leader and leading talent developer.

LCTP enhances your leadership capabilities and competencies in critical leadership disciplines. Improve your ability to lead and command consciously, facilitate and communicate mindfully while dealing with a changing organization, virtual communities and performance pressure against a global market. LCTP redefines your leadership and capacity to develop others by anchoring your professional growth and aligning your personal development.

Add value in your leading capabilities.

The value of leadership lies in the dynamics that form partnerships, teams and organizations. You will learn to grasp and influence the leadership dynamics through understanding the motivations and values of others. Here, you will learn to create a compelling vision, persuade and inspire others. Plus smoothen the dynamics between people and their opposing interests to find a common ground for forging forward towards the organisation's main goals.

LCTP is designed to be an experiential learning process. Spearhead your own leadership development through applying the tools as a leadership coach. Start to inspire others into the journey with the right means. Inquire into your own capabilities as a leader and a coach, and examine your own experiences, skills and ambitions. A small group setting enables you to learn through the experiences of other leaders while practicing the techniques in a hands on manner. You can experiment and learn from classmates facing similar challenges in different situations.

Our Four Tenets of Learning

The Leadership Coach Training Program is built on these four tenets:

Principles of Leadership Performance

Coaching leaders requires an understanding of the key areas of performance of leadership. It includes sharpening your skills by utilizing your personal qualities and honing it during the program. The program trains you on specific leadership factors and includes experiential learning opportunities to practice and apply your skills.

Dynamics and Roles

Learning to lead and coach leaders requires both your skills and knowing how to motivate and inspire others. LCTP engages you in deep inquiry to hone your understanding of the dynamics between your holistic being and your functional roles, as well as how you can use this newfound awareness to lead in all settings.

Inspire Leadership

Leadership coaching is about a coach inspiring a person to be a better leader. It is both a function of developing specific leadership skills within the leadership discipline, as well as the ability to call forth insights and realizations from the development of different key areas of leadership. You will learn how to bring forth these moments of deep reflections and realizations in the talent you are grooming.

Developing Your Unique Leadership Style

Leadership is a complex discipline that requires an aligned attitude and the exercise of these disciplines on a consistent basis at all levels of an organization, in and across different teams. Through LCTP, gain awareness over how you lead and why. Learn how to use your unique attributes to catalyze and build up different teams within an organization.

Our Learning Methodologies

- Interactive training to help you grasp key concepts and the latest thinking.
- Group coaching to facilitate learning with other leadership coaches.
- Real-life live demonstration of coaching and discussions.
- Activities to sharpen your leadership coaching in a safe and ontologically-challenging environment.

Module 1: Fundamentals of Leadership Coaching

This first module is a pre-requisite for this program. You will acquire the skills and knowledge required for you to be an effective coach.

Begin by learning tools and models as pertaining to the core of an individual who seeks to be a leader. This also includes the conversation that educates you as to how to cause individual and aspiring leaders to build a viable future for themselves and their teams.

In this module, you will also be able to conduct the fundamental coaching sequence necessary to lead people into the clarity of their purpose and future as leaders. These coaching stages are proprietary training methods used by Executive Coach International Pte Ltd (ECI).

ICF Core Competency Focus:

- CC01 Meeting Ethical Guidelines and Professional Standards
- CC02 Establishing the Coaching Agreement
- CC03 Establishing the Trust and Intimacy with the Client
- CC04 Coaching Presence
- CC05 Active Listening
- CC06 Powerful Questioning
- CC07 Direct Communication
- CC08 Creating Awareness

Module 2: Principles of Team and Systems Building

Module 2 focuses on managing a team of people from diverse backgrounds with conflicting opinions to a goal they can work towards to. You will study the basis of how teams work as well as how systems are created so that you are able to analyze, critic, build and rebuild teams to higher performance and systems from all robust corporations.

This requires the leader to understand the basis on which the team can successfully come together. Identify the factors that contribute to the longevity of the teams' existence.

When systems are put in place, they are often designed to resolve a problem but not necessarily with the foresight of how the system will evolve. By addressing the way the system is designed, the coach will be able to work with leaders on the strengths and weaknesses of their leaders, address their capability of resolving issues before they even appear.

This module will allow a coach to work with leaders to build teams of effective people working with and on systems that would run smoothly and effectively into promising futures.

ICF Core Competency Focus:

- CC08 Creating Awareness
- CC09 Designing Actions
- CC10 Planning and Goal Setting
- CC11 Managing Progress and Accountability

Module 3: Coaching on Charismatic Influence and Motivations

During this module the focus is on values, thinking models, communication, and para-communication models. Distinguish what it takes to create a combination of these factors to influence and motivate others via charisma.

This module includes the study of fundamental human motivations. We will analyze the reasons for a person to be motivated by themselves, regardless of what is being offered from the external environment. This is to distinguish how people may have very different concepts of what they really want versus what leaders think would motivate them.

We will study core values and needs that will allow us to identify precisely what individuals want. In application for leadership, it is about being able to speak to these motivations within the person in such a way that they can find a relationship to that person in various contexts. This includes our proprietary training model on how to develop effective charismatic communication for leaders.

ICF Core Competency Focus:

CC01 Meeting Ethical Guidelines and Professional Standards
 CC02 Establishing the Coaching Agreement
 CC03 Establishing the Trust and Intimacy with the Client
 CC04 Coaching Presence
 CC05 Active Listening
 CC06 Powerful Questioning
 CC07 Direct Communication
 CC08 Creating Awareness
 CC10 Planning and Goal Setting
 CC11 Managing Progress and Accountability

Module 4: Holistic Coaching on Leadership, Ecosystems and Environments

In the final module of the program, which is an advanced module, we begin to develop the coach on the ability to cause a leader to have a big picture or to sophisticate their understanding of the big picture by:

- addressing the impact of their leadership
- how it affects the entire ecosystem
- where their leadership resides in
- the external, global (and often competitive) environment that these leaders operate in.

There will be an emphasis on the gamification of leadership as an application within an ecosystem as well as the gamification of how coaches develop leaders. With the big picture, the leader will be able to:

- identify how and where a system is ineffective
- pinpoint whether there is:
 - a personal leadership flaw
 - a wrong positioning of an individual
 - flawed team dynamics
 - flawed team composition or ineffective systems
 - non-working systemic thinking
 - note the inability to manage challenging human emotions within a complex structure.

These will enable a leader to troubleshoot their own system and identify where they can strengthen their entire system. In this module, all the fundamentals, models and tools learned throughout modules 1 to 3 are put into application at the Professional Certified Coach Credential level.

ICF Core Competency Focus:

CC04 Coaching Presence
 CC05 Active Listening
 CC06 Powerful Questioning
 CC07 Direct Communication
 CC08 Creating Awareness
 CC09 Designing Actions
 CC10 Planning and Goal Setting
 CC11 Managing Progress and Accountability
